If an extension of my arm is a tool;
Then what continues from my back, my neck, my nacken seems to be some sort of nameplate.
This pseudo extension lets me stand out from a crowd.

Rrrrrrrrrratsch krsksratsch the sound of a back crack; a cracked back; an awakened spine.
(This sound should work like the snare in this instrumental)

My fingers leak with blood, I am a dripper.
The knife cuts the skin, I am a cutter.
I fix the cuts in my skin with; glue, tape and tin foil, I am an amateur.

The placeholder as an au-pair; some sort of traveller.

*The works „Workers“ describes several figures on the base of their acting and behavior.
Their behavior makes them alive; their acting makes them visible. Of moving on something; of having sturmfrei inside a device.*
